

A map is a representation of something. Use a pencil to draw the route you would take to get from school to the store, then the library and then home X.

Map of Our Community

Write a sentence about the path that you took. Use North, South, West and East in your sentence.

---

---

---