

Pronouns can take the place of nouns that are not the subjects of sentences.

you her him it us them

Write the correct pronoun for the underlined word.

1. He found the book in his desk.

He found _____ in his desk.

2. Give the dog to Tim.

Give the dog to _____.

3. They saw Sally and me at the park.

They saw _____ at the park.

4. Sam went to the game with Dan, Kim, and Fred.

Sam went to the game with _____.

5. Ben played with Jen outside.

Ben played with _____ outside.

Possessive pronouns are used to show that something belongs to someone.

her his my mine your our their

Circle the correct pronoun in each sentence.

1. This is (my/mine) brown dog.
2. The girl is reading (her/his) book.
3. The children like to ride on (our/their) bikes.
4. My sister and I eat (our/their) snacks.
5. The toy car is (its/mine).
6. Please give me (your/mine) pencil.
7. The boy kicked (her/his) ball.