

WHO PROVIDES SERVICE...

Some people give us ideas.

Authors share ideas by writing. They might write books, plays, or poems.

TV reporters bring us news and ideas. They go to places where the news is happening. Then they talk about it on TV.

Architects have ideas about what a building will look like. They draw their ideas on a piece of paper. They call their drawing a blueprint.

Can you think of other jobs like these?

Some people fix things.

Plumbers put water pipes into buildings. They also fix pipes when they break.

Electricians work with electricity. They put electric wires in buildings. They also repair things that use electricity.

Mechanics fix cars when they break down. They change tires that are flat or worn out. They put new parts in our cars.

Can you think of other jobs like these?

WHO PROVIDES SERVICE...

Some people take care of people or pets.

Childcare workers take care of children when their parents are working.

Doctors help people stay healthy. If we are sick, a doctor tells us ways to get better.

Our pets have their own doctors. They are called veterinarians. They take care of sick or hurt animals.

Can you think of other jobs like these?

Many people work hard to care for our community.

Police officers keep our community safe. They help people obey the community's laws. A law is a rule. Police officers stop people who do not obey laws.

Firefighters put out fires. They rescue people from danger. Some firefighters have extra training. They help people who are hurt or sick.

Mail carriers deliver letters and packages. They bring mail to homes and businesses.

Rangers keep parks and forests safe and clean. They also teach people about the plants and animals that live there.