

We all need money to buy goods and services. Most people earn money by making goods or doing a service. People decide how they spend their own money.

People spend money to buy things they need. Sometimes they spend money to buy things they want. People also save money to use in the future. That means people put away some of their money and do not spend it right away.

How do you spend and save your money?