

Adverbs That Tell When or Where

Some adverbs answer the questions When? or Where? of a verb. The sentences below contain adverbs that tell when or where something happens, happened, or will happen.

Yesterday my family drove to Texas.

When did we drive to Texas? yesterday

We looked everywhere for the map.

Where did we look? everywhere

We will have a snack soon.

When will we have a snack? soon

A Circle the adverb in each sentence.

1. My dad turned the car around.
2. Then my brother laughed.
3. We stopped nearby.
4. Tomorrow we will go home!

B Choose an adverb to complete each sentence. Make sure that the adverbs tell when or where.

1. A new bookstore opened _____.
2. _____ we will go to the movies.
3. The car is _____ of the truck.
4. My brother is coming home _____.