

The Crowded House

Part 2: Character Traits

Character traits are words that describe the personality of a character. It is something that the character is unlikely to change and makes that character unique. Good readers consider character traits because it helps the reader get a better understanding of a character. They determine a trait of a character by paying attention to the text evidence.... what the character thinks, does and says.

Directions:

Reread “The Crowded House” story then complete the table below to identify the traits of a character.

Character	Trait	Text Evidence
Reb Solman
Mom and Dad	Obedient	