

Explain to children that when they borrow something, it is expected to be returned. Tell children that when they check out a library book from school they are borrowing that book. Have children draw a picture of themselves taking care of a library book that they borrowed.

For an extension, write a sentence about why someone might borrow a book from the library.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---