

Poems

Poems are another type of text. Poems can be described as a story in a song, paints a picture, having lots of different feelings, having rhyming words, possible tongue twisters and can be short.

Directions: In the space below, pick one of these ideas.

1. Think of a poem you know and draw a picture of it. Share your drawing with someone.
2. Write your OWN poem and draw a picture of it. Share with your work with someone.