

End Punctuation Practice

A period (.) ends a sentence that is telling information.

An exclamation mark (!) ends a sentence when it shows excitement or emotion.

A question mark (?) ends a sentence that asks a question.

Read the sentences. Choose the best way to end the sentence. Cut out the correct ending punctuation and glue it at the end of each sentence.

I love to jump in puddles
Is it going to rain
A bird can make a nest in the spring
Where are my rain boots
My birthday is coming soon
