

A map is a representation of something. Use a pencil to draw the route you would take to get from the house on Cherry Street to the Library on Spring Street.

Map of Our Community

