From the desk of Miss Mac:

Thank you for your attendance at conferences last week. Over 95% of our parents attended. I'd also like to thank the staff for accommodating parents' schedules. The meals for conferences were fantastic and appreciated.

The Book Fair was a huge success. We sold $3,035.59 in books, which means we were able to purchase over $1400 in books to add to our library. Lots of students won posters and the animal cracker jar had 342 crackers in it. Six lucky winners received a free book. And what about those amazing volunteers: Erin Neises, Jessica Burn, Latisha Sand, Sara Licht, Allison Kass, Jen Banwarth, Jessica Schreyer and Kelli Buchenau. Thank you!

The movie Abominable will be shown tomorrow in our gym at 6:30 PM

Counselor Corner...Mrs. Boeve

Greetings! Some new programs and groups have begun at in Sageville's counseling program within the last few months. In Kindergarten and 3rd Grade, students have been introduced to a Peer Conflict Resolution program called Kelso's Choice. Students learn to use the choices from Kelso's Wheel to solve small problems without adult intervention. Students are taught that they are "smart enough and strong enough to handle small problems on their own." In grades 3rd and 5th, students have participated in activities and read through Trudy Ludwig's books on Bullying, Peer Conflict, and Gossip/Rumors and are exploring appropriate ways they can stand up for themselves and others when faced with these problems. And students in 1st, 2nd, and 4th grades used games and activities to practice collaborating with others and the different ways they can make it work well! Additionally, several small groups for girls have begun during lunch or recess towards education of healthy friendships and to build cohesion. Please ask your student what have learned, how they worked through a problem with a peer, and what responsibility they have in their relationships with others! If you have questions about any of these programs, books, guidance lessons, or small groups, please call or email me.

There are only five orders to order Scrip for the rest of the year. Start planning your spring needs and celebrations coming up to order Scrip.
